

Call for Presentations

The National Law Center for Children and Families is currently seeking trained individuals who are interested in presenting at NLC PROTECTS Seminars in 2013 – 14 for law enforcement and prosecutors.

Presentation topics include:

- Computer and internet forensics*
- Child pornography prosecution and discovery*
- Child sexual exploitation crimes*
- Child witness interviews*
- Coping techniques for law enforcement*
- Emerging technologies in investigations*
- Grooming, online enticement and social networks*
- Interviewing and interrogating offenders*
- Investigating and prosecuting federal cases*
- Juvenile prostitution*
- Managing a child exploitation crimes task force*
- Mobile technology*
- On scene forensics*
- Presenting medical evidence in child sex cases*
- Sex offender management*
- Working with child advocacy centers*

If you would like to present or wish to nominate a speaker, please fill out the form below:

Presenter

Name:
Agency:
Title:
Org:
Address:
City/State/Zip:
Phone:
Email:

Proposal submitted by: _____

Email: _____

Title of Presentation (maximum 10 words):

Please attach a biography, program description of 75 words or less, and a short cover letter explaining why you, or the person being nominated by you, would like to present at a PROTECTS seminar. The NLC will review your proposal and contact you as soon as a decision is made.

For more information, please visit our website at www.nationallawcenter.org.